A Word from the Stewardship Committee: The word Stewardship comes from the Greek word Oikenomous, which means someone who manages a household but does not own it. We are all called to be appropriate stewards in God's house. It is not something we do. It is who we are.

"For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me. I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me. Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me"
—Matthew 25:35-36, 40

The Church of St. Andrew and St. Paul was built in 1931-32. Two congregations, St. Andrew's founded in 1803, and St. Paul's founded in 1832, joined together in 1919. This is the Regimental Church of The Black Watch (Royal Highland Regiment) of Canada, whose colours hang in the sanctuary. The church organ is a four-manual 1932 Casavant (completely rebuilt in 2000) with 112 ranks and 7000 pipes spread over eight divisions, located in the chancel and the gallery.

Music in Worship: Sunday, January 19, 2020

Introit: Hail! gladdening Light
Charles Wood (1866-1926)

Hail! gladdening Light, of His pure glory poured
Who is th'immortal Father, heavenly, blest,
Holiest of Holies--Jesus Christ our Lord!

Now we are come to the Sun's hour of rest;
The lights of evening round us shine;
We hymn the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit divine!

Worthiest art thou at all times to be sung
With undefiled tongue,
Son of our God, giver of life, alone:
Therefore in all the world thy glories, Lord, they own. Amen.

Anthem: Rejoice in the Lord alway
Barrie Cabena (b. 1933)

Rejoice in the Lord alway, and again I say rejoice. Let your moderation be known to all men. The Lord is at hand. In nothing be anxious but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Jesus Christ our Lord.

-Philippians 4: 4-7

About this morning's organ and choral music

"Light" is one of the dominant themes of the season of Epiphany, which celebrates the Magi's following of the star to discover the divine Christ Child. Wie schön leuchtet der Morgenstern ("How brightly beams the morning star") is one of the great Epiphany hymns of the Reformation, penned by Philipp Nicolai (1556-1608 – cf. Book of Praise no. 152). Dietrich Buxtehude (1637-1707) was organist of St. Mary's Church in Lübeck, North Germany. As a young man, J.S. Bach allegedly walked 250 km to meet and study with the great master (from whom, in JSB's own words, he "learned one thing and another about his craft"), whose luminous setting of Nicolai's hymn forms this morning's prelude. His joyous, multi-sectional Präludium in D major, BuxWV 139 is set in the traditional key of trumpets, drums and festal music, and is an ideal work to explore the full sonic possibilities of the great North German organs.

Charles Wood was an Irish composer and teacher whose pupils included Ralph Vaughan Williams at Cambridge and Herbert Howells at the Royal College of Music. The most popular of all Wood's anthems, Hail, gladdening light demonstrates fastidious craftsmanship and a supreme mastery of the genre, conveying a satisfying warmth and richness of emotional expression appropriate to his carefully chosen texts. The music is a strident, antiphonal work for double choir in ternary form. The bright, outer, homophonic sections contrast with a more mellow middle section. The words come from a poem by the Tractarian John Keble, based on the third century Greek hymn Phos Hilaron (Φώς Ιλαρόν).

Australian-born Barrie Cabena studied in England with Herbert Howells and John Dykes Bower, organist of St Paul's Cathedral. He came to Canada in 1957 as Director of Music at First-St Andrew's United in London, ON, and was soon appointed professor of organ at Wilfrid Laurier University, where one of his students included the present writer. Cabena is probably Canada's most prolific composer, having written over 1,000 compositions to date. His language is clear, classical and economical; the sparkling right-hand melody in Rejoice in the Lord alway evokes St Paul's barely-contained joy at the thought of Christ's Advent, while the rich, sustained chords at the text "Let your moderation be known…" reflect serenity born of faith. - JO

And I Kept on Living: a Candlelight Vigil for Suicide Prevention Awareness. Saturday, February 8, 2020 at 7:30 p.m. Admission: Free; A&P Chamber Choir; Jean-Sébastien Vallée, direction.

Join us for a special Candlelight Vigil contemplating the subject of suicide and the stigma associated with mental illness. Among young Canadians, suicide is the second-leading cause of death after car accidents. Suicide and mental health are closely connected: an estimated 90% of people who die by suicide also struggle with mental illness. Suicide affects most of us, but we don't know how to talk about it--so we don't. Join us as we let music open our hearts and minds to create a safe space of reflection on this difficult topic.

Calling All Singers to "Reach out with Music"!

On Wednesday evening, January 22, The Church of St. Andrew and St. Paul will be reaching out to the residents of Manoir Westmount with an ecumenical service. If you enjoy singing hymns, why not add your voice to the hymn singing by gathering with the A & P Hymn Singers Choir — traditionally a special part of our A & P–led services? The service starts at 8:00 p.m. Manoir Westmount is at 4646 Sherbrooke Street West; the service will be held in the Activities Room (behind the Dining Room).

Rabbie Burns Day Reception January 26: Immediately following the service, we will once more be paying tribute to A&P's Scottish roots by hosting an abbreviated 'Burns Lunch' in Kildonan Hall.

We would welcome any food contributions, particularly 'tatties and neeps' (potatoes and turnip - to go with the Haggis), or any other Scots-themed delight you can think of.
