The Church of St. Andrew and St. Paul was built in 1931-32. Two congregations, St. Andrew's founded in 1803, and St. Paul's founded in 1832, joined together in 1919. This is the Regimental Church of The Black Watch (Royal Highland Regiment) of Canada, whose colours hang in the sanctuary. The church organ is a four-manual 1932 Casavant (completely rebuilt in 2000) with 112 ranks and 7000 pipes spread over eight divisions, located in the chancel and the gallery.

Music in Worship: Sunday, August 5, 2018

During the summer months, our full choir is on rest. We thank our dedicated singers for their stellar work, and welcome the opportunity to explore more intimate choral works on the Sundays in June, July and August.

Our guest organist this morning is Helen Tucker, who holds a graduate degree in organ performance from McGill University, and is currently studying law at the same institution.

Introit: Come, Holy Ghost Thomas Attwood (1765–1838)

Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire, and lighten with celestial fire.
Thou the anointing Spirit art, who dost thy sevenfold gifts impart.

Thy blessed unction from above is comfort, life, and fire of love.
Enable with perpetual light the dullness of our blinded sight.

Anoint and cheer our soiled face with the abundance of thy grace.
Keep far from foes, give peace at home: where thou art guide, no ill can come.

Teach us to know the Father, Son, and thee, of both, to be but One, that through the ages all along, this may be our endless song:
Praise to thy eternal merit, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

—Veni Creator Spiritus, translated by John Cosin (1594–1672)

Anthem: Praise to God in the Highest Sidney Schofield Campbell (1909–1974)

Praise to God in the highest! Bless us, O Father: praise to you!
Guide and prosper the nations, rulers, and peoples: praise to you!
May the truth in its beauty flourish triumphant: praise to you!
May the mills bring us bread, for food and for giving: praise to you!
May the good be obeyed and evil be conquered: praise to you!
Give us laughter, and set us daily rejoicing: praise to you!
Peace on earth and goodwill be ever among us: praise to you!
Amen, alleluia, alleluia, amen.

—19th-century Russian text, translated by Percy Dearmer
