The Church of St. Andrew and St. Paul was built in 1931-32. Two congregations, St. Andrew's founded in 1803, and St. Paul's founded in 1832, joined together in 1919. This is the Regimental Church of The Black Watch (Royal Highland Regiment) of Canada, whose colours hang in the sanctuary. The church organ is a four-manual 1932 Casavant (completely rebuilt in 2000) with 112 ranks and 7000 pipes spread over eight divisions, located in the chancel and the gallery.

Music in Worship: Sunday, August 26, 2018

During the summer months, our full choir is on rest. We thank our dedicated singers for their stellar work, and welcome the opportunity to explore more intimate choral works on the Sundays in June, July and August.

Introit: Here, O my Lord, I see thee face to face
Percy Whitlock (1903-1946)

Here, O my Lord, I see thee face to face;
Here faith can touch and handle things unseen;
Here would I grasp with firmer hands Thy grace,
And all my weariness upon Thee lean.

Here would I feed upon the Bread of God,
Here drink with Thee the Royal Wine of Heav'n;
Here would I lay aside each earthly load,
And taste afresh the calm of sin forgiven.

—Horatius Bonar, 1855

Anthem: Come down, O love divine
Sir William H. Harris (1883-1973)

Come down, O Love divine,
seek thou this soul of mine,
and visit it with thine own ardor glowing;
O Comforter, draw near,
within my heart appear,
and kindle it, thy holy flame bestowing.

O let it freely burn,
till earthly passions turn
to dust and ashes in its heat consuming;
and let thy glorious light
shine ever on my sight,
and clothe me round, the while my path illuming.

And so the yearning strong,
with which the soul will long,
shall far outpass the power of human telling;
for none can guess its grace,
till Love create a place wherein the Holy Spirit makes a dwelling.

—*Bianco of Siena, d. 1434; trans.
by Richard F. Littledale, 1833-1890*
