The Church of St. Andrew and St. Paul

The Church of St. Andrew and St. Paul was built in 1931-32. Two congregations, St. Andrew's founded in 1803, and St. Paul's founded in 1832, joined together in 1919. This is the Regimental Church of The Black Watch (Royal Highland Regiment) of Canada, whose colours hang in the sanctuary. The church organ is a four-manual 1932 Casavant (completely rebuilt in 2000) with 112 ranks and 7000 pipes spread over eight divisions, located in the chancel and the gallery.

Mrs. Margarita Medina-Ibanez

WELCOME to the Church of St. Andrew and St. Paul. If you are a first-time worshipper with us, please sign our Welcome Book in the Narthex and make yourself known to us. Those who wish to know more about our church and its activities can make use of the pew envelopes to request information.

Our Church School - Our Church School does continue throughout the summer months offering an open class every Sunday during the Service for children ages 5-10. Our Crèche and Nursery are open to parents who would like to remain with their little ones and would like to view the Service on the closed-circuit television. Our summer program ends this Sunday with no classes on Labour Day weekend, September 1. An Open Class for all ages will be held on September 8th in the Iona Room. All classes and our full curriculum will resume when we welcome everyone back on Welcome Back – Reunion Sunday, September 15.

Reunion Sunday-Welcome Back! September 15, 2019: Do you know someone who has lost their connection with A&P-a lost sheep longing for our Shepherd's presence in their lives? Perhaps you know someone who senses that the Church is still calling faintly but for some reason they are unable to respond. If you do, please invite them to attend our Reunion Sunday, September 15, where we can welcome them back with open arms.

On that special Sunday, we will also be welcoming new members to our congregation - another reason to celebrate!

Please join us for food and fellowship at the Welcome Back Reception in Kildonan Hall after the service. See you there!

Music in Worship: Sunday, August 25, 2019

During the summer months, our choir takes on a more intimate character. We thank our regular-season choristers who dedicate so much time and energy to the church's worship from September through May, and are especially grateful to those who sing during the summer as well.

Introit: Exultate justi

Ludovico da Viadana (1560-1627)

Exsultate, justi, in Domino;
rectos decet collaudatio.
Confitemini Domino in cithara;
in psalterio decem chordarum psallite illi.

Cantate ei canticum novum;
bene psallite ei in vociferatione.

Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous : for it becometh well the just to be thankful. Praise the Lord with harp : sing praises unto him with the lute, and instrument of ten strings.

Sing unto the Lord a new song : sing praises lustily unto him with a good courage.

—Psalm 32: 1-3

Anthem: Benedictus, op. 34, No. 2

Edward Elgar (1857–1934)

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel : for he hath visited, and redeemed his people;
And hath raised up a mighty salvation for us : in the house of his servant David;
As he spake by the mouth of his holy Prophets : which have been since the world began;

That we should be saved from our enemies : and from the hands of all that hate us;

To perform the mercy promised to our forefathers : and to remember his holy Covenant;

To perform the oath which he sware to our forefather Abraham : that he would give us;

That we being delivered out of the hands of our enemies : might serve him without fear;

In holiness and righteousness before him : all the days of our life.

And thou, Child, shalt be called the Prophet of the Highest : for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways;

To give knowledge of salvation unto his people : for the remission of their sins,
Through the tender mercy of our God : whereby the day-spring from on high hath visited us;

To give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death : and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

—St. Luke 1: 68-79

Music notes will return in September.
