CELEBRATION OF HOLY COMMUNION

Invitation

The Apostles Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord,
Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,

was crucified dead and buried;
He descended into hell.

The third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and sits on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence He shall come

to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost;

the Holy Catholic Church; the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins;
The resurrection of the body: life everlasting.
Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven
Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
And forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil;
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory
Forever and ever.
Amen.

Music in Worship: Easter Sunday, April 12, 2020

Anthem: Alleluia

Randall Thompson (1899-1984)

Alleluia.

Communion Motet: The Call, from *Five Mystical Songs

Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958)

Come, my Way, my Truth, my Life: Such a way as gives us breath;
Such a truth as ends all strife; Such a life as killeth death.

Come, my Light, my Feast, my Strength: Such a light as shows a feast;
Such a feast as mends in length; Such a strength as makes his guest.

Come, my Joy, my Love, my Heart: Such a joy as none can move;
Such a love as none can part; Such a heart as joys in love.

-George Herbert (1633)

About this morning's organ and vocal music...

Prelude: While popular understanding has it that J.S. Bach's (1685-1750) works fell into total obscurity after his death only to be revived by Mendelssohn in 1829, the truth is not quite so simple. Bach's own students and their "descendents" understood the value of the master's oeuvre, and exchanged and jealously guarded copies of the pieces we know and love today. This morning's setting of the great Easter hymn Christ lag in Todesbanden ("Christ lay in death's dark bands") comes down to us in a copy by the noted theorist J. P. Kirnberger, who studied with Bach in 1748. It is a sprightly, triple-metre trio for manuals only (no pedal), with the chorale melody appearing in the alto voice.

Anthem: A bon vivant whose charm was infectious, Randall Thompson was also a self-assured artist. A one-time junior colleague wrote: "Randall Thompson's choral works are a shining reflection of the joy and creative skill with which he taught musical craft--of Palestrina and Lasso, of Monteverdi and Schütz, of Bach and Handel." He composed and taught, serving as director of the Curtis Institute of Music and a professor at his alma mater, Harvard University. Though he also wrote symphonies, songs, operas and instrumental works, he is best known for his choral compositions of which Alleluia is the most famous.

Communion Motet: The Welsh-born, English poet, orator and priest George Herbert is often associated with the metaphysical poets, and is considered one of England's finest devotional lyricists. Following a good education at Trinity College, Cambridge, Herbert went on to serve in Parliament before taking Anglican ordination vows. Ralph Vaughan Williams' *Five Mystical Songs set a selection of lyrics from Herbert's anthology The Temple. Vaughan Williams' bold use of harmonic parallel fifths, strong rhythmic figures, excerpts of chant, and a generally modal language inspired by folk music were controversial at the time of composition (1906-1911), but have stood the test of time. The Call is a simple, direct invocation that juxtaposes earthly and divine love, in the spirit of the Song of Solomon.

Postlude: Charles-Marie Widor (1844-1937) served for 64 years as the unofficial yet de facto organist of St Sulpice in Paris. Symphonie V is the most famous of his ten organ symphonies, and the Toccata, with its stentorian theme heard in the pedal throughout, is arguably THE iconic classical organ work. -JO
