

Fall Fair Forecast

Come one, Come all!

The date is November 1, and here's the list of those responsible for running the different tables. There's always room for more volunteers as each convenor makes up their team of helpers. So if you are interested, please contact one of the many listed below.

Items for sale at the Fall Fair can be brought to the church side entrance every week-day from 9:00 until 5:00. Something that you may be discarding may be just what someone else is looking for! It is amazing what can be sold at this event!

Please note the message from Phyllis Proppe concerning the PLUM PUDDINGS. The ordering process is changed. Make sure that if you want a plum pudding, you now will have an order form, and payment is prior to delivery, rather than after delivery.

The money that is raised at this FALL FAIR goes to support local charities. Often the money from the church's OUTREACH Committee is delivered at the same occasion as that from the Guild's Fall Fair, so that the church is able to provide support to many local organizations with a united approach!

Bring a friend to the FALL FAIR! Plan to enjoy a good lunch! Have coffee and a muffin in a cheery setting! Everyone is WELCOME. Non-perishable food items are gratefully accepted at the door.

If you've never been before to this event, make this the year that you attend!

Plum Puddings 2014

What no plums?

The Guild is busy preparing for the annual production of 300 pounds of plum pudding. In truth, there are no plums but there are all kinds of other good things including 12 bottles of dark ale.

This year order forms will be mailed out and pre-payment requested. If you have not received an order form by mid-September please contact BETTY-JO CHRISTIAN!

Tel. 450-465-1054

e-mail: bj_christiani@hotmail.com

There will be puddings for sale at the Fall Fair but last year we were sold out by 10 a.m., so to make sure that you have a pudding for your holiday festivities, send your order in early! Requests will be accepted up until Oct.19, 2014.

Tartans Please!

Here's an unusual request! Do you have any old tartan scarves, shirts, skirts, kilts -- even old holey ones!? Beverley Hutchison turns them into wonderful tartan wreaths for the FALL FAIR! If you can supply her with these 'raw' materials, she'll be delighted to hear from you!

Wine & Cheese Party

Thursday, October 30

5 – 7 pm in Church House

This event has become the enjoyable kick-off to the Fall Fair. Reservations for this can be made by phoning 514.933.2934, cost is $20. Susan Stevenson will be delighted to hear from you, and along with Wayne Riddell and Donald and Penny Wilkie and others will be there to welcome you.

This is an opportunity to meet lots of folk that you might see in church but not always have the chance to chat with. Here's the time, with excellent wine and delicious cheeses. Special items from the different stalls upstairs will be available for purchase at this evening's party.

This year the Wine and Cheese Party is being held on Thursday evening, as the customary Friday evening is Hallowe'en and we don't want to compete with THAT event! Please note this in your agendas!
